The Daily Courant.

Monday, Auguſt 28. 1721.

London, Auguſt 28.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from Holland, and another from France.

Lisbon, July 29.

THE laſt Week this Court received an Expreſs from Rome, with Letters from the Cardinals d'Acunha and Pereira, intimating, that the Pope is deſirous that the Diſputes among the Eccleſiaſticks of this Kingdom be perfectly ended, and that the Vacant Canonſhips be alſo diſpoſed of before their Departure; which will, in all probability, retard their Return to this Kingdom for ſome Time, at leaſt till a new Archbiſhop is choſen for this City. An Advice-Boat is lately arrived here from the Brazils, with an Account that at the End of March laſt the Fleet was on the point of ſailing from the Bay of All-Saints to Fernambuca, ſo that it is not to be expected here till the Months of Auguſt or September next.

Toulon, Aug. 9. The Plague is diminiſhing daily, and the Inhabitants are buſy in perfuming their Houſes and Furniture. According to a new Liſt of the Inhabita[illegible] appears there are now living 967 Men, 2177 [illegible]men, 365 Boys, and 1117 Girls; in all 5021 Sou[illegible] of whom 2[illegible]8 have recovered from the Peſtilen[illegible] beſides the foregoing Numbers, there are 1500 [illegible] Hoſpitals, and 2000 others who are withdr[illegible] the City. Letters from Niſmes of the 15t[illegible] Month ſay, that no Signs of the Pla[illegible]ted in that City, or in the adjac[illegible]

Madrid, Aug. 11. Laſt We[illegible] at the Eſcurial the Duke of Leeds from B[illegible] a Project which he preſented to his [illegible]thol[illegible] Majeſty for the re-eſtabliſhing of his [illegible]arine, but met with a very cold Reception with regard to himſelf as well as his Project; and as he came not only without Leave from the King of Spain, but even contrary to his Majeſty's expreſs Orders, it was ſignified to him that he ſhould retire from the Court; whereupon he deſired a Paſſport for Cadiz, deſigning to imbark for Italy. The Marqueſs de Lede is gone from hence, in order to put the new projected Reform in Execution, by which the Spaniſh Troops will be reduced to the Eſtabliſhment of 70000 Men; and in order to this Reform ſeveral Regiments are marching to the Sea Coaſts of Catalonia and Valencia. Orders are come for the Reſtitution of Fontarabia and St. Sebaſtian upon the 23d Inſtant to the King of Spain. It is believed the Duke de Bournonville will be ſent to Paris in the Quality of Ambaſſadour from his Catholick Majeſty.

Madrid, Aug. 19. Their Catholick Majeſties and the Royal Family continue in good Health at the Eſcurial; and on the Feſtival of the Aſſumption of the Bleſſed Virgin, aſſiſted at the Celebration of High Maſs, and at the Sermon; as they did likewiſe at the Devotions of St. Roque's-Day, and the Octave of St. Lawrence, titular Saint of the Convent. The King has given the Government of Fontarabia to Don Joſepho d'Emparay, and that of Ollanno to the Marqueſs d'Hermoſillas.

Copenhagen, Aug. 23. 'A terrible Fire happened 'ſome time ago at Londbuy, but it is ſince found 'out to have been purpoſely done by ſome Incendiaries, to ruin the Bailiff, to whoſe Houſe they 'ſet Fire: Upon which publick Orders are iſſued 'for diſcovering the Authors of that Villany, and 'a Reward offered for apprehending them; and 'the more to ſtir up the People to ſearch diligently, 'the Miniſters have from their Pulpits recommended the Neceſſity as well as the Virtue of ſuch a 'Proceeding. Some Days ago Advice was brought 'to Dragoe, not far from hence, that a great Dutch 'Veſſel had run foul upon and ſunk another laden 'Merchant-Ship, but the Crew were ſaved. A 'Commiſſion is eſtabliſhed for examining the true 'Burthen of all Ships trading hither, as well of 'this Country as others, but eſpecially the large-'built Ships of a certain Nation, which have been 'found to mark a leſs Number of Tuns than they 'really carry, to the great Prejudice of the Cuſtoms 'of the Sound. Two Ordinances have been 'lately publiſhed here, the one concerning a 'large Marble Quarry diſcovered in Norway; 'and in order to give it Credit in this Kingdom, all foreign Marbles imported henceforward is to pay a Crown Cuſtom for every Cube. The other relates to the fiſhing of Lobſters, 'which the Fiſhermen have now Liberty of tranſporting where they pleaſe, though formerly they 'were required to ſell them at low Rates to Perſons here, who diſpoſed of them afterwards.

Hambourg, Aug. 26. 'Their Royal Highneſſes 'the Prince and Princeſs of Den[illegible]ark paſſed on the '22d Inſtant through this City for Ottenſen, and 'were entertained [illegible]re three Days in the Country 'Houſe of the Prin[illegible] East Frieſland; on which 'Occaſion, abundan[illegible] Perſons of Diſtinction re-'paired thither, to p[illegible] Compliments to their 'Royal H[illegible]ghn[illegible] [illegible]t out thence [illegible] Morning 'to dine [illegible]e [illegible] Count Callemberg at Pin-'neberg proceed to Iſehoe and Renſe[illegible]re th[illegible]t Daniſh Majeſties 'their Court; but becauſe [illegible]veniently hold both Courts, 'that Plac[illegible] eſpecially at this [illegible]ſture, when all the Nobility 'of the adjacent Coun[illegible] are aſſembled there with 'magnificent Equip[illegible], their Royal Highneſſes 'have reſolved to ta[illegible] up their Reſidence for ſome 'Weeks at the Ca[illegible] of Huſumer. The Duke of 'Holſtein Ploen [illegible] alſo arrived at Gottorp. The 'King has begun to aſſign Officers for the Houſhold 'of the Prince and Princeſs, having already named 'M. Otto Blome for firſt Gentleman of the Horſe, 'and appointed two Gentlemen of the Bedchamber. It is believed the King will not tarry much 'longer at Gottorp, but rather, that he will ſhortly begin his Journey for Copenhagen, where the 'Citizens are making extraordinary Preparations 'for the Reception of their Majeſties, and 'their Royal Highneſſes. Nothing is mentioned 'by this Poſt concerning the Acts of Fidelity 'and Homage to be made ſeparately by the Nobility of the Dutchy of Sleſwick, which they 'ſeem inclinable enough to execute, provided they 'could be aſſured, that their Dutchy will be for 'ever incorporated with the Dominions of Denmark. Letters from Stockholm ſay, that the Inhabitants of that Capital are ſo animated againſt 'the Duke of Holſtein, whom they look upon as 'the Author of their preſent Calamities, that the 'Count de Vander-Nath, and other Partizans of 'that Duke, dare not venture to ſtir abroad for 'fear of the Populace; and that 'tis reported, that 'ſuch Perſons as will not depart from, and renounce 'the Intereſts of that Duke, will be declared Enemies to their Country. The Proſpect which Major-General Smettau had ſome time ſince of being 'declared Governour of this City, ſeems to be 'mightily altered ſince Collonel Wolemberg wrote 'to Prince Eugene, complaining of the Injuſtice 'done him by this City's Deputies, in propoſing 'the Major-General for that Office, while he himſelf self is in the Execution of it, and has been so for these five Years past; to which it is said the Prince has answered in very obliging Terms, signifying, that it was never his Intention to do any thing to the Prejudice of brave and honest People, and that he never would do so.

Paris, Sept. 3. M. Fagon, Councellour of State, and one of the four Commissaries belonging to the India Company, retired on the 29th of the last Month to one of his Country Seats: It is rumoured, that the Occasion of his Retreat proceeded from Discontent about Matters he had transacted for the Government. On the 30th of the last Month, the Reform was made among the Clerks in the Old Louvre, 300 of whom are dismissed. Sundry Reports have been spread here lately concerning Mr. Law; nevertheless the Venetian Letters of the 16th of the last Month, mention his being at that Time in that City. Letters of the 22d of the last Month from Port Lewis say, that M. Blangy, who commanded the Fleet sent by the India Company to the Levant, is returned from his Voyage thither with the Ship the Solid; that two others accompanied the former during Part of the Voyage home, and are left behind, but 'tis believed may likewise be arrived by this Time; and that these three Ships have brought Cargoes to the Value of 15 Millions of Livres. The Dutchess of Tallard has had a second Fit of Apoplexy, for which she was twice let Blood. Two extraordinary Couriers arrived here the last Week from Madrid, and 'tis confidently reported, that they have brought the Ratifications of his Catholick Majesty's Renunciations, as agreed to by the last Treaty of Peace. M. Philip Moreau, Chevalier, and Lord of Mazieres, Crefnal, and other [illegible] nan of Anjou, had his Head cut off [illegible] Place de Greve; it is said his C[illegible] lise [illegible]y. Yesterday an Or[illegible]shed, requiring t[illegible]soons, who are [illegible] guedoc, A[illegible] deaux and [illegible] Posts before th[illegible] Penalty of being [illegible]
